Job Title: Equal Justice Works Fellowship: 2022-2024

Job Description: Calling all 3L students who wish to pursue a career in public interest law! Diocesan Migrant & Refugee Services, Inc. is seeking committed, enthusiastic and diligent individuals with a keen interest in practicing immigration law at its epicenter in El Paso, TX. The Equal Justice Works Fellowship assists young lawyers in overcoming barriers in order to pursue their passion in public interest law. For further information, please visit the Equal Justice Works website at:

<https://www.equaljusticeworks.org/>

We are actively seeking fellowship applicants who are interested in helping us further our mission by increasing access to justice for the immigrant population of El Paso and surrounding areas.

Each year the Equal Justice Works fellowship competition selects qualified and passionate lawyers who have developed new and innovative legal projects that can impact lives and serve communities in desperate need of legal assistance. Fellows receive a competitive salary, generous loan repayment assistance, connections to their prominent sponsors, participation in trainings, and additional support during their two-year tenure.
